LAKSHYA SHOOTING CLUB

PREVENTION OF SEXUAL HARASSMENT POLICY

1.0 INTRODUCTION

Lakshya Shooting Club (“LSC”), in line with the guidelines envisaged under the National Sports Development Code of India and as suggested by the Ministry of Youth Affairs & Sports on the prevention of sexual harassment of women in sport and the judgment of the Hon’ble Supreme Court in the case of Vishaka & Ors. V. State of Rajasthan & Ors, has developed this policy in an effort to provide a safe and harassment free environment for all its players, members and staff, particularly women.

Acts of sexual harassment are taken extremely seriously by LSC and will not be tolerated under any circumstances. All stakeholders should not only be aware of their right to a safe and secure working environment, but also their individual actions and responsibilities to prevent sexual harassment in the sport.

2.0 WHAT IS SEXUAL HARASSMENT

“Sexual Harassment” is any behavior that has a sexual element, which is unwelcome. It is behavior that can be reasonably expected in the circumstances in which it occurs to offend, humiliate or intimidate the person or group to whom it is directed at.

Sexual harassment would mean and include any of the following:

- Written or verbal abuse or threats or communication
- Sexually oriented and demeaning jokes and comments
- Uninvited physical contact including touching, massaging or kissing
- Propositions, promises, threats or punishment towards co-operation. / non- cooperation in sexual activity
- Leering or other suggestive or obscene gestures

Prevention of Sexual Harassment Policy

- Display of sexually explicit or other offensive or derogatory material
- Intimidating sexual remarks or actions / conduct that might reasonably be expected to cause embarrassment, insecurity, discomfort, offence, or humiliation to another person.
- Innuendos and taunts of a sexual nature and physical confinement against one's will.

Irrespective of the action being intended as harassment or not, if it is unwanted and improper behavior, and gives reasonable grounds for an individual to feel insulted, intimidated, offended, embarrassed, insecure or humiliated, then it shall be considered sexual harassment and will not be tolerated.

3.0 POLICY STATEMENT

Sexual Harassment has emerged as a major concern for the sports community worldwide. Not only does sexual harassment undermine the performance, self-esteem and personal goals of people involved in sport, but it can also have equally damaging consequences for sporting organizations as well.

LSC is committed to providing an environment, free of Sexual Harassment where all stakeholders involved with shooting are treated with respect and dignity.

LSC will not tolerate any behavior that could in any manner constitute Sexual Harassment under any circumstances whatsoever and severe disciplinary action will be taken against anyone who breaches this policy.

LSC will not tolerate any act of retaliation against any complainant. Further, LSC shall not tolerate misuse of this policy. If during the course of inquiry, it is found that individuals have preferred false /fabricated complaints or evidence, appropriate disciplinary action will be taken against the said individuals.

Prevention of Sexual Harassment Policy

4.0 WHO DOES THE POLICY APPLY TO

This policy applies to all stakeholders including:

- Staff
- Trustees
- Volunteers
- Associates
- Officials
- Players
- Anyone who is employed by or represents LSC, whether paid or unpaid.

5.0 SITUATIONS THE POLICY APPLIES TO

This policy applies to behavior occurring in all situations both within and outside the sport and/or workplace including:

- Sporting events, competitions, and in training sessions
- The office environment
- Sports/office - related social functions
- Business functions, such as meetings, conferences, training sessions, and workshops
- Sport/work- related travel

6.0 RESPONSIBILITY

- LSC is responsible for taking all reasonable steps and actions to prevent sexual harassment in the sport / workplace.

Prevention of Sexual Harassment Policy

- LSC shall make all reasonable efforts to ensure that this policy and all amendments thereto are brought to the notice/attention of all stakeholders, concerned officials and associates of LSC.
- LSC stakeholders are jointly responsible for ensuring that their sport/work environment is free of harassment by not indulging in any action or behavior that may be reasonably seen as sexual harassment.
- Everyone associated with LSC is required to read, understand and follow the different aspects of this policy.

7.0 TECHNIQUES TO DEAL WITH SEXUAL HARASSMENT

There are a variety of methods available to an individual to deal with any unwanted attention or behavior.

1. INDIVIDUAL

This involves approaching and confronting the perpetrator of the unwanted behavior that their behavior is inappropriate and unwelcome and request them to stop such behavior with immediate effect. This can either be done directly with the individual concerned, by writing them a letter or email or taking the assistance and support of a close friend to go with you to confront the concerned person.

2. INFORMAL

If you do not wish to take formal action or you do not feel comfortable in approaching the individual yourself, you can involve someone else to help resolve the situation.

It is recommended that in such a situation you speak to an independent third party, such as a senior member of the LSC team, support personnel, LSC staff, Complaint Officer/Counselor or Chairperson of the LSC Internal Complaint Committee and share with them details of your concern. They, in turn, can then speak to the person concerned and attempt to resolve the situation.

3. FORMAL

When an informal resolution is not possible, it may be necessary to resort to formal procedures to resolve the complaint. The matter should then be raised or brought to the attention of the Chairperson of the LSC Internal Complaint Committee.

A written and signed complaint should be filed by the individual to the Chairperson of the LSC Internal Complaint Committee and include details such as date, time, incident, witnesses etc.

8.0 GRIEVANCE REDRESSAL MECHANISM: THE LSC INTERNAL COMPLAINT COMMITTEE

LSC shall appoint the members of the LSC Internal Complaint Committee, which will be a body comprising of 5 members including a Chairperson. At least half of the members appointed to the LSC Internal Complaint Committee shall be women.

The LSC Internal Complaint Committee will have the power to hear and determine all issues arising from the complaints alleging Sexual Harassment. Besides this main function, the LSC Internal Complaint Committee is obligated to perform other duties such as:

- Providing stakeholders with unbiased and impartial support mechanism to air any concerns or grievances including advice on how to proceed.
- Conduct the hearing of any formal complaint made by any of the stakeholders.
- Investigate and make further inquiries into the complaint, if there is prima facie view that there is substance in the complaint so submitted.
- Follow the LSC policy and processes and adhere to principles of natural justice, to ensure that both parties have a fair and unbiased opportunity to represent themselves.
- Recommend any action to be taken by LSC against individuals breaching this policy or making false claims.
- Provide any evidence/information to the relevant authorities, in the event it is ascertained that the specific case relates to the commission of relatively serious offences, which could attract penal consequences under ordinary law.
- Keep the records of any complaints or incidents and action taken by the LSC Internal Complaint Committee confidential and if required, use the same for discreet investigations.

Thus, the LSC Internal Complaint Committee shall be fair and impartial in the performance of its functions and shall possess all powers necessary for, and incidental to, the exercise of its functions. The LSC Internal Complaint Committee shall make the final decision on the findings arrived at and recommend any disciplinary action as it may deem fit based on the facts and circumstances of each case. In the event the complaint alleges criminal offences, the matter may be reported to the police or any other authority in order for them to take appropriate action that may be permissible under the law.

9.0 CONTACTING THE LSC SEXUAL HARASSMENT COMMITTEE

Stakeholders can contact any member of the LSC Internal Complaint Committee either informally or formally to discuss any concerns or incidents.

LSC guarantees that any complaint will be investigated and handled promptly, seriously, sensitively and confidentially.

Individuals can be reassured that there will be no retaliation or detrimental impact to their career if they raise or come forward with a complaint.

For the purpose of avoiding uncertainty, any act of retaliation towards an individual that either a) reports or files a complaint, b) participates in or supports an individual filing a report, will itself be deemed as an act of harassment under this policy and will not be tolerated under any circumstances.

LSC encourages individuals who experience sexual harassment to seek immediate advice and assistance. Such individuals should also remember to document incidents of the behavior including time, place and any witnesses etc.

9.1 COMPLAINT OFFICER/ COUNSELOR

A Chairperson shall be designated as the complaint officer/counselor (“Complaint Officer/Counselor”). All complaints and grievances with regard to sexual harassment may directly be addressed to the Complaint

3. THE INQUIRY PROCESS

- The LSC Internal Complaint Committee will initiate a formal inquiry within 20 days of the receipt of the complaint.
- The inquiry will include interview/s and recording of statements of the complainant, the accused and any witnesses that either party may seek to rely on.
- All parties have the right to produce any evidence in support of their claims/ arguments.
- All parties will be entitled to be represented or assisted by their authorized representatives during the inquiry process.
- The entire inquiry process should be concluded within 90 days from the initiation of the formal enquiry, subject to extension, for reasons to be recorded in writing by the LSC Internal Complaint Committee.

4. REVIEW OF COMPLAINT

- On conclusion of the inquiry, a report will be prepared taking into account the details supplied by each of the individuals along with the relevant facts/allegations made out in the complaint. In the event the complainant does not make out a case of Sexual Harassment, the same would be recorded in a closure report.
- The report will include:
 - Details of the complaint
 - Response from the accused to the formal complaint summary of information provided by each of the interviewees.
 - Details of any other area of investigation
 - LSC Internal Complaint Committee members' opinion of the incident and what is likely to have transpired.

Prevention of Sexual Harassment Policy

- Termination of contract with LSC

13.0 EXTERNAL REPORTING

Without prejudice to the abovementioned, it is unequivocally stated that at any point of time, it is the prerogative of the complainant whether they wish to proceed with the complaint or not.

Additionally, the complainant also has the right to report the matter to the relevant authority/police if the complaint alleges any criminal offence. However, this will not impact any inquiry or any action being taken by the LSC Internal Complaint Committee, which would run concurrently to the criminal proceedings that might arise therefrom.

14.0 RIGHT TO APPEAL: APPELLATE PANEL

Decisions made by the LSC Internal Complaint Committee may be appealed. Both parties to the complaint have a right to appeal against the decision, if they believe that the principles enshrined in this policy have not been followed or that the decision so arrived at is based on bias / unfairness.

LSC shall appoint an independent appellate panel (“Appellate Panel”), consisting of 5 members from the Managing Committee less the members already present in the Internal Complaint Committee (Appointed by the Trustee Board). The appointed members shall have had no prior involvement in the case or any aspect of the case as a member of the original review panel while the matter was being adjudicated upon by the LSC Internal Complaint Committee.

Individuals wishing to formally appeal will need to give notice of their intention in writing within a period of 15 days from the date on which the order of the LSC Internal Complaint Committee was communicated/received and file the appeal within a period of 15 days of communication/receipt of the order of the LSC Internal Complaint Committee. The Appellate Panel shall be independent and impartial in the performance of its functions and has all powers necessary for, and incidental to, the exercise of its functions, hearings pursuant to lodging of the appeal shall be completed expeditiously and in all cases within 30 days of the date of filing the appeal.
